The ship Lousa which returned to Honolulu a few days since from French Frigate Shoal, brought back an Arctic dog, supposed to have been left on the island by the bark Gambia some two years ago. During all that time the dog has had no food excepting the eggs of sea-birds, which inhabit the island in countless numbers. These eggs have served for his meat and drink during the long period that he has been its solitary tenant, and judging by his healthy appearance, he has not suffered from his fare. This island is a low coraline formation, with an elevation of not more than four or five feet above the level of the sea, and with no fresh water of any kind on it. When the sloop arrived and her boat landed, the dog ran to meet and welcome his visitors, and gave expression to the greatest joy. He immediately jumped into the boat, determined not to be left behind when it should again push off, and there secreted himself for a long time, or until he found that the sailors intended staying some time. But the eagerness with which he watched the boat every day and stayed by the men showed that he had great fear of being left again. The fact that this dog has lived for more than two years on birds' eggs opens a question for physiologists, whether men could not subsist for an infinite period of time on the same food without water.

A very learned and compassionate judge in Texas, on passing sentence on one Wm. Hutchinson, who had been convicted of murder, concluded his remarks as follows:

"The fact is, Hutchinson, that the Court did not intend to order you to be executed before next spring, but the weather is very cold, the jail, unfortunately, is in a very bad condition, much of the glass in the windows is broken, the chimneys are in such a dilapidated state that no fire can be made to render your apartments comfortable, besides, owing to a great number of prisoners, not more than one blanket can be allowed to each, to sleep sound and comfortable would be out of the question. In consideration of these circumstances, and wishing to lessen your sufferings as much as possible, the Court, in the exercise of its humanity and compassion, do hereby order you to be executed to-morrow morning as soon after breakfast as may be convenient to the sheriff, and agreeable to you."

"Is there much water in the cistern Biddy," inquired a gentleman of his Irish girl as she came up from the kitchen.

"It is full on the bottom, sir but there is none at all on the top," was the reply.

A contemporary wishes to see a tooth from the mouth of a river. We would very respectfully refer him to Cairo, Ill., which at present gives a good deal of trouble to the Secessionists, and looks as if it would be hard to draw.

Trial of the Indian Murderers

The Indians concerned in the murder of Mr Briggs and Indian near Burr's Gate were tried before Judge Watson in the Wasco county circuit court, last week. One of the murderers turned State's evidence, and upon his statement the others were convicted. We give the witness' evidence, as furnished by the interpreter.

Witness Ha na cure being examined, stated: The evening previous to the murder near Jackson & Todd's Bridge, Jack whom, Tush wick, Anac shat, Quash-la, and two other Indians were in consultation and on a drunken frolic they proposed to commit the murder of the men; Jack-whom told them of the money they could get by so doing, and proposed to join them in the morning. He then went home to Deschutes at 1 o'clock to be back early in the morning. The others waited till noon for him, and as he did not appear, they went with the Indians to the place of murder at Burlow's Gate; there they saw the two Americans and at the instigation of Tush wick, were going to murder them, but concluded to wait till night. About dusk, they rode up to where the two whites were encamped, on a creek, and made them believe that they were going to camp with them. As soon as it was fairly dark Tush-wick told the others to huddle around the mouth of the tent where the old man was sitting. It was understood that Tush wick was to shoot the old man, which he did, and then jumped upon the young man who was lying down in the tent and dispatched him, with the assistance of Quash la, by breaking his skull with a thigh bone of an ox and Quash la, with a heavy oak whip handle, made of a wagon spoke, beat him about the face and head. After the old man was shot, he fell forward on his face, then Anac shat jumped on him, and held him down, and called Ha na cure to get one of the guns and shoot him; he did so, and shot him in the back of the head. The young man was killed by Tush-wick and Quash-la, the old man by Tushwick and Anac shat and they told me to shoot him while down, which I did. After they were dead, they hauled the bodies down on the bank of the creek, and laid them down in a hollow, about twenty or thirty yards apart. Left all the property, except the two horses, which they rode on top of a hill, and left them, a rifle was taken by Quash la and a revolver—five shooter—by Tush-wick.

At the same term the Indian Tal ash was tried and convicted of the murder of a white man in Tygh valley, whose name has never been learned. The witness, Ta-chuste, was also State's evidence.

Ta-chuste—witness—stated that He-ster took Tal-ash and Hau walkie at a spring near the Tygh Valley, left them there, and went to hunt for his horses. After he found his horses he went on to Tygh and there perceived a horseman and two footmen—the horseman in the lead, and the two footmen following him one behind the other—coming up to them. He found them to be Tal-ash and Hau walkie, and the man on horseback was an American; and as he was passing them Tal-ash said that he was going to kill that man. He told him that he had better not, as the man had nothing, and if he did the crime could not be concealed. The white man then passed on ahead of them. Tal-ash then overtook the American, and after talking with a while struck him on the back of the head with a sling shot and knocked him down; and after he was down, struck him again on the forehead and killed him; he searched his pockets, &c., but did not find anything; took the saddle and bridle and reached them in the brush, and called on him to remove the body to the brush, but he would not, and was called a coward, woman, &c.; with that called on Hau walkie and said what are you afraid of standing there shooting, it was you that killed him? Then Hauwalkie assisted him in removing the body to the brush. He went on to Chamberlain's and left them at the place of murder; this was in the forenoon, about eleven o'clock. When he returned home that evening he again overtook them at the same spring where he had left them in the morning. He turned his horse out and accompanied them home to Deschutes. Tal-ash particularly instructed them not to say a word about it.

All the Indians (four) were convicted and sentenced to be hung.

After the trial they were visited by their chief and tribe—the Upper Deschutes.

They walked up to the grave in the jail yard, but spoke with them. The Chief said: We have come to see you for the last time on this world. He who has power like I and tried to help you, is gone to the Great Spirit, and many things. We have only a few nights more to live. Keep good hearts and prepare for it, for it is only one death. When we arrive at that place we will meet again and be [illegible].

Qu-pena, the Chief, then shook hands and retired, and the band followed in turn all repenting as above, and also retired.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 7, 1861.

HORSES.

Among the horses exhibited as thoroughbreds, the first that claims notice is Paul Jones. This well-known descendant of the original Black Hawk was in bad keeping, and his legs showed a feverish condition. They "stocked" from the slightest exercise. In the same stable there were two horses; one a Lummis and the other a Veto. The Veto horse was six years old, and was a gay looking horse—dark chestnut, and must have a good strain of blood on the dam's side, for he does not bear the slightest resemblance to his sire—He won the prize for speed. The Lummis horse was entered for a roadster. The horse Veto was on the ground, and while he may be of service in propagating horses for all work, can never be the sire of horses that run a mile and repeat.

A lot of horses of all work next claims attention. There were but two noticeable nags among these; both greys; one because it took a prize away from another which was infinitely the superior horse. The horse that did not get the prize for horses of all work is a superior-looking dappled grey; about fifteen hands and an inch high, finely limbed, and rises prettily in the withers. He is a most serviceable horse, and should have been preferred to the other grey by the judges.

The next stable contained the trotting stallion Black Hawk, Bulger—entered as a thoroughbred and a very elegant black riding-horse for lady's use. Black Hawk is a fine forehanded horse, and is an honest trotter; reaching out finely, and is very sure-footed. Bulger is a dark chestnut gelding, and is about fast enough to lose money on, and too spiteful to be of service as a hack.

A lot of brood-mares, yearlings, and colts comes next. There was a noticeable brown yearling filly among them, which we judged to be from Rifleman, but as usual, nobody was around to give information about stock. The filly had the head of a well-bred horse, but the drooping rump and narrow loins indicate what her performance will be as a turf horse if she is ever tried. There were many fat sleek looking horses that were pretty; many horses which were represented as being of pure stock; but we pass the opinion, that of all the entries of horses for premiums not one was thoroughbred, or anywhere in the neighborhood of it. Still there was stock on which really fine blood could be crossed to advantage.

Maj. Magone brought his Rifleman colt on the ground with its thoroughbred dam, a fine-bitten grey mare, nineteen years old. In her we see the advantage of blood. After fifteen years hard service there is not a blemish on her, and she carries herself as gay as a filly of three years. Her foal by Rifleman is a dark brown, and is of great promise. If he comes to be two years old and past without accident, we expect to hear of him favorably.

Mr. Barrell took his six-months old horse colt by Paul Jones, out of the "Millard Mare" from this city to the Fair, but not to compete for a prize. The colt has been distempered and has not attained to a growth that might be expected. From the excellent constitution and running qualities of its dam, it is not unreasonable to suppose that he will be a much superior horse to Paul.

CATTLE.

Prizes were awarded to a yearling Short Horn bull, and to a three year old as a Short Horn, which he was not. No more was the yearling only he bore a close resemblance to that kind of stock. A three-year old bull, of no particular stock, took the sweepstakes premium. A two-year old heifer took the Short Horn premium, and was nearly pure blood. The exhibit of cattle was not what it ought to have been, and could have been.

SHEEP.

The show of sheep was very fine, and would creditable to the State. Mr. McKinlay exhibited a fine Leicester buck, which is a cross of the Bakewell, and Cotswold. The Bakewell united many desirable qualities, but could only exist on generous feed. The Cotswell cross is claimed as giving them good feeding qualities. A very pretty lot of seven Southdowns, consisting of ewes, lambs and bucks came next. Then Mr. Minto's French and Spanish merinos, bucks, ewes and lambs.

Mr. Parrish had three lots of sheep; first, a lot of French and Spanish Merino ewes; second, a first premium yearling Spanish Merino buck, and a lot of Spanish Merino lambs; third, a second premium two-year old French Merino buck. There was a fine lot in a pen—and nobody about as usual, to tell their story—consisting of a Spanish Merino buck, and six ewes of the same stock. An immensely large French Merino yearling buck, did not get a prize. Six beautiful French Merino ewes and lambs, had no owner about.

We differ from S. R. Rockwell, we do like the South Down, because they are so lively and pretty, and of all fine sheep we ever saw, a buck of Ralph C. Geer's was the choicest, unless we except a buck that Knapp & Burrell sold to somebody up the country last Spring. Mr. Geer's South Down buck comes to $700 worth, and he will be a profitable investment at that. Besides the buck, he had seven South Down ewes, that were worthy of the praise lavished on them. Last came the Australian sheep of Mr. Brayman—five bucks and six ewes. They unite the qualities of excellent feeders, good mutton and fine wool—a most deserving stock of sheep.

HOGS.

There were several pens filled with swine, including the Byerfields, graded Berkshires, Suffolks and Irish graziers. The exhibit of these was pretty fair, but might have been much better for the breeders in the country.

We have hitherto neglected to state that, on the first day of the Fair, SIMEON FRANCIS was elected President of the State Agricultural Society, vice G. COLLIER ROBBINS, resigned.

The Overland Emigration.

From Sergeant W. M. Blain, of the Mounted Escort Company, for the protection of Emigants crossing the plains, we gather the following information:

The company consisted of about 80 men rank and file; and they left Omaha, Nebraska, on the 3d day of June last. They arrived at Walla Walla recently, with about 120 emigrant wagons. He estimates the emigration to this coast at not less than 30,000—the larger portion of which went to California. This company awaited to bring up the rear of the emigrant trains, and experienced no trouble from the Indians with the exception of the stealing of nine mules by the Snakes, seven of which were recovered.

Sergeant Blain says that it is necessary to have a Government escort for the emigration, not only on account of protection from Indian depredations, but to keep them from famine. The company furnished rations to a portion of the emigrants from Fort Hall to Walla Walla—otherwise they would have been in a starving condition.

On Malheur river they discovered the bleaching bones of what is supposed to be those of a former emigration, and buried them.

This company was under the command of Capt. H. E. Maybridge, U. S. A. Lieutenants R. Forney, M. McMichael, Thos. Barker and Sergeant Blain were discharged, on the disbanding of the Company at Walla Walla.

Medoram Crawford, Esq., an old and well known resident of Oregon, acted as general superintendent—performing his duties to the satisfaction of all. The probability is that out of the 30,000 which crossed the Plains this year, at least two-thirds went to California.

We have a note from a well-advised gentleman at Washington, dated 3d inst, which says: "Arrangements are being made to have the government receive from Oregon, into its service, as many men as choose to enlist,—to be sent wherever their services are most needed.

"Government will issue bonds for the war debt in six or seven weeks.

"Col. Baker's force has been increased to 6000 men."

R. G. Hawks has arrived at San Francisco as bearer of dispatches from the U. S. Commissioner at that place.

Gov. Curry's political friends have been mightly busy in raising secession flags, in Stockton, Cal. They were taken down without difficulty.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24th.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19th.)

Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald says Gen. McClellan and several of his staff, this afternoon, rode to examine our earth works garrisoned by a portion of Franklin's command. While reviewing the enemy's position, Gen. McClelland discovered five or six hundred of the enemy approaching, two miles distant. He immediately ordered several rifled cannon placed in position, and sent his compliments to the rebels in the shape of a twenty-pound shell, which exploded in their midst, producing the wildest confusion. The whole force was seen to scatter and fly; and there is no doubt a large number were killed. They did not return the fire. Gen. McClellan, after dispersing this force of rebels, directed his attention to a new battery recently thrown up by the enemy, a short distance south of Munson's Hill, known as Mason's Hill. He threw several shot and shell into their works causing their hands to knock off. They were surprised by this sudden opening of our battery on theirs as they disappeared and did not return the fire. Gen. McClellan returned to the city at nine o'clock last night.

A deserter from the rebel camp at Munson's Hill came into our camp to-day, and was immediately carried to Gen. McClellan. He states that Generals Beauregard and Johnson were both at Munson's Hill yesterday and made a thorough reconnoissance of our position. He states there are only about 1000 soldiers at Munson's Hill, and the main body of the troops are at Fairfax and Centerville. He says that Jeff. Davis was at these two points on Tuesday, and reviewed the troops in person. He saw Jeff. Davis at Munson's Hill yesterday, and examined our troops with a glass. He says they were daily expecting an attack from our forces, also says he never heard the intention expressed by the rebels, of making an attack on our forces.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 21st.—Col. Bigler attacked 35 rebels while drilling, near Borbensville. The rebels fled at the first fire—their leader and 20 others were made prisoners, several men killed and wounded.

LOUISVILLE, 21st.—Robert Anderson has issued a proclamation to Kentuckians. He says: "Call by the Legislature of Kentucky, my native State, I hereby assume command of this Department. I come to enforce and not make laws, and, God willing, to protect your property and your lives." He begs Kentuckians to rally round the flag our fathers loved. I call you to arms for self-defense and for the protection of all that is dear to freemen. Let us trust to God and do our duty, as did our fathers. (Signed.)

ROBERT ANDERSON,
Brig. Gen., U. S. A.

The proclamation of Gen. Buckner, C.S.A., is just arrived. He says the Legislature of Kentucky has been faithless to the will of the people; they have endeavored to make our gallant State a fortress in which, under the guise of neutrality, the armed forces of the United States might securely prepare to subjugate alike the people of Kentucky and the Southern States. He says: "I return among the citizens of Kentucky at the head of a force the nucleus of which is composed entirely of Kentuckians. We do not come to molest any person, whatever may be his political opinions. I renew the pledges of commanders of other columns of Confederates, to retire from the soil of Kentucky on the same conditions which govern their movements. I further give you my assurance that the force under my command will be used as aid to the government of Kentucky, in carrying out the strict neutrality desired by its people, whenever they undertake to enforce it against the belligerents alike.

S. B. BUCKNER,
Brig.-Gen., C. S. A.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—It is stated that 10,000 troops can leave Indiana in 24 hours.

Gen. Reynolds, who was at Cheat Mountain, the telegraph says) has driven the rebels from their position, killing nearly 100 of them. Col. Tidwell of the 10th Indiana Regiment, was surrounded twice, but repulsed the rebels with great gallantry, and small loss to us.

Government accepts the tender of the military services of the Count De Paris and the Duke De Chartres. They will probably enter Gen. McClellan's staff. There is no definite action in regard to Maj. Gen. Fremont.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—A messenger who has just arrived from Chain Bridge, reports all quiet at that point. A rebel deserter has just come in from Munson's Hill. He brings news that Beauregard had promised the North and South Carolina Regiments of his army, that they should be led to battle the first of October or be permitted to go home.

Nothing new has transpired along the Potomac. Some days past, conversations have been held between our own and the rebel pickets, when it was discovered that the latter belonged to the 2d Richmond Cavalry, who were anxious to exchange Richmond papers for the leading Union Journals, but our pickets declined.

CAIRO, Sept. 21st.—A skirmish took place yesterday P. M. below Fort Holt, between company I, of 10th regiment and a small force of rebels. Capt. McAllen of Co. I was slightly wounded in the arm. The rebels were defeated and driven back towards the field.

The question has been raised of adding bacon to the rations of our soldiers. McClellan favors it.)

A young man, native of Kentucky, has escaped from the rebel army at Bull Run. He says they have 185,000 men at Manassas. They are paid promptly and well clad and shod.

CITY.

COMMON COUNCIL.—Council met on Friday night, Oct. 4, 1861, the President in the Chair. Present—Messrs. Hastings, Holbrook, Harbaugh, King, Scott, White and Hull.

A communication from the City Attorney asking an appropriation to pay witness fees in the suit of J. P. O. Lownsdale vs. the City of Portland, was read and referred to Committee on Finance.

A communication from the Acting Mayor was received, which read as follows:

GENTLEMEN:—In the absence of the Mayor the accompanying Ordinance was presented to me by your Clerk, Mr. Boyd, for your approval. On a careful examination of the City Charter, from which your powers of legislation are derived, I am unable to find any powers there granted to make appropriations of the character contemplated in the Ordinance. I further object to cumbering the Book of Ordinances with acts having no continuing force, and the object of which, if in accordance with the provisions of the Charter, can be attained by the passage of a resolution to that effect. The Ordinance is herewith returned for your further consideration.

O. RISLEY,
Acting Mayor.

The motion to pass the Ordinance over the Mayor's veto, was lost, by 5 yeas to 4 nays.

The report of the City Council for the quarter ending Sept. 30th, was read, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The following bills were ordered paid: H. L. Pittock, $83 75; W. P. Abrams, $35 41; T. H. Field, $24 59; Wm. Grooms, $8 50; Marks & Lotz, $2 50; Remington & Clark, $6 00.

The report of the committee on streets and public property, relative to the construction of a sewer in the south part of the city, was read and adopted.

An Ordinance for the suppression of Bawdy Houses and Houses of Ill-fame, was laid on the table.

A resolution to pay Portland Gas Light Co., was laid over under the rules.

A resolution instructing the committee on streets and public property to inquire of the Portland Gas Co., at what cost they will furnish fixtures in Council Room, was lost.

A resolution to have all City printing done at the City printer was adopted.

A resolution appropriating $213 75 to pay H. W. Davis for flag and flag staff was read and laid over.

A resolution requiring the clerk of the Common Council to furnish the City Printer with three copies of the proceedings of the Board, was, on motion to adopt, laid on the table.

Adjourned.

WILL ARRIVED.—The free Lectures delivered by Dr. C. H. De Wolfe on phrenology and temperance, were well attended, and the audiences seemed to be well pleased with the entertainments.

The County Court, Judge Hamilton presiding, will commence its session this morning.

The cheese which received the first premium at the Oregon State Fair, is now on sale at the store of R. Pittock & Co., south of the office. We invite judges and those fond of a very superior article to give it a trial.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

With the Stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 7, 1861.

HORSES.

Among the horse exhibited as thoroughbreds, the first that claims notice is Paul Jones. This well-known descendant of the original Black Hawk was in bad keeping, and his legs showed a feverish condition. They "stocked" from the slightest exercise. In the same stable there were two horses; one a Lummix and the other a Veto. The Veto horse was six years old, and was a gay looking horse,—dark chestnut, and must have a good strain of blood on the dam's side, for he does not bear the slightest resemblance to his sire.—He won the prize for speed. The Lummix horse was entered for a roadster. The horse Veto was on the ground, and while he may be of service in propagating horses for all work, can never be the sire of horses that run a mile and repeat.

A lot of horses of all work next claims attention. There were but two noticeable nags among these; both greys; one because it took a prize away from another which was infinitely the superior horse. The horse that did not get the prize for horses of all work is a superior looking dappled grey; about fifteen hands and an inch high, finely limbed, and rises prettily in the withers. He is a most serviceable horse, and should have been preferred to the other grey by the judges.

The next stable contained the trotting stallion Black Hawk, Bulger—entered as a thoroughbred and a very elegant black riding horse for lady's use. Black Hawk is a fine forehanded horse, and is an honest trotter; coaching out finely, and is very sure footed. Bulger is a dark chestnut gelding, and is about fast enough to lose money on, and too spiritful to be of service as a hack.

A lot of brood-mares, yearlings, and colts comes next. There was a noticeable brown yearling filly among them, which we judged to be from Rifleman, but as usual, nobody was around to give information about stock. The filly had the head of a well-bred horse, but the drooping rump and narrow loins indicate what her performance will be as a turf horse if she is ever tried. There were many fat sleek looking horses that were pretty; many horses which were represented as being of pure stock; but we pass the opinion, that of all the entries of horses for premiums not one was thoroughbred, or anywhere in the neighborhood of it. Still there was stock on which really fine blood could be crossed to advantage.

Maj. Magone brought his Rifleman colt on the ground with its thoroughbred dam, a flea-bitten grey mare, nineteen years old. In her we see the advantage of blood. After fifteen years hard service there is not a blemish on her, and she carries herself as gay as a filly of three years. Her foal by Rifleman is a dark brown, and is of great promise. If he comes to be two years old and past without accident, we expect to hear of him favorably.

Mr Barrell took his six-months old horse colt by Paul Jones, out of the "Millar's Mare" from this city to the Fair, but not to compete for a prize. The colt has been distempered and has not attained to a growth that might be expected. From the excellent constitution and running qualities of its dam, it is not unreasonable to suppose that he will be a much superior horse to Paul.

CATTLE.

Prizes were awarded to a yearling Short Horn bull, and to a three year old as a Short Horn, which he was not. No more was the yearling only he bore a close resemblance to that kind of stock. A three-year old bull, of no particular stock, took the sweepstakes premium. A two year old heifer took the Short Horn premium and was nearly pure blood. The exhibit of cattle was not what it ought to have been, and could have been

SHEEP.

The show of sheep was very fine, and was creditable to the State. Mr. McKinlay exhibited a fine Leicester buck, which is a cross of the Bakewell and Cotswold. The Bakewell united many desirable qualities, but could only exist on generous food. The Cotswold cross is claimed as giving the good feeding qualities. A very pretty lot of seven Southdowns, consisting of ewes, lambs and bucks came next. Then Mr. Minto's French and Spanish merinos, buck, ewes and lambs.

Mr. Parrish had three lots of sheep: first a lot of French and Spanish Merino ewes; second, a first premium yearling Spanish Merino buck, and a lot of Spanish Merino lambs; third, a second premium two-year old French Merino buck. There was a fine lot in a pen—and nobody about, as usual, to tell the story—consisting of a Spanish Merino buck and six ewes of the same stock. An immensely large French Merino yearling buck, did not get a prize. Six beautiful French Merino ewes and lambs, had no owner about.

We differ from S. B. Rockwell; we do like the South Down, because they are so lively and pretty, and of all that we ever saw, a buck of Ralph C. Geer's was the choicest, unless we except a buck that Knapp & Burrell sold to somebody up the country last Spring. Mr. Geer's South Down buck comes to $100 worth, and he will be a profitable investment at that. Besides the buck, he had seven South Down ewes, that were worthy of the praise lavished on them. Last came the Australian sheep of Mr. Brayman—five bucks and six ewes. They unite the qualities of excellent feeders, good mutton and fine wool—a most deserving stock of sheep.

HOGS.

There were several pens filled with swine, including the Byefields, graded Berkshires, Suffolks and Irish graziers. The exhibit of these was pretty fair, but might have been much better for the breeders in the country.

We have hitherto neglected to state that on the first day of the Fair, SIMEON FRANCIS was elected President of the State Agricultural Society, vice G. COLLIER ROBBINS, resigned.

The Overland Emigration.

From Sergeant W. M. Blain, of the Mounted Escort Company, for the protection of Emigants crossing the plains, we gather the following information:

The company consisted of about 80 men rank and file, and they left Omaha, Nebraska, on the 3d day of June last. They arrived at Walla Walla recently, with about 120 emigrant wagons. He estimates the emigration to this coast at not less than 30,000—the larger portion of which went to California. This company awaited to bring up the rear of the emigrant trains, and experienced no trouble from the Indians with the exception of the stealing of nine mules by the Snakes, seven of which were recovered.

Sergeant Blain says that it is necessary to have a Government escort for the emigration, not only on account of protection from Indian depredations, but to keep them from famine. The company furnished rations to a portion of the emigrants from Fort Hall to Walla Walla—otherwise they would have been in a starving condition.

On Malheur river they discovered the bleaching bones of what is supposed to be those of a former emigration, and buried them.

This company was under the command of Capt. H. E. Maynadier, U. S. A. Lieutenants R. Forney, M. McMichael, Thos. Parker and Sergeant Blain were discharged on the disbanding of the Company at Walla Walla.

Medoram Crawford, Esq., an old and well known resident of Oregon, acted as general superintendent—performing his duties to the satisfaction of all. The probability is that out of the 30,000 who crossed the Plains this year, at least two-thirds went to California.

We have a note from a well-advised gentleman at Washington, dated 3d ult., which says: "Arrangements are being made to have the government receive from Oregon, into its service, as many men as choose to enlist.—to be sent wherever their services are most needed.

"Government will issue bonds for the war debt in six or seven weeks.

"Col. Baker's force has been increased to 6000 men."

E. G. Hawks has arrived at San Francisco as bearer of dispatches from the U. S. Commissioner at that place.

Gov. Curry's political friends have been mightily busy in raising secession flags in Stockton, Cal. They were taken down without difficulty.

DATES FROM ST. LOUIS TO SEPT. 24.

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

YORK, Oct. 1st,
Ruby Valley, 285 miles east of Fort Churchill, Sept. 30th. Dispatches arrived here this afternoon at 2 o'clock, bringing advices for the Union to Sept. 24th, from Sweetwater Station, 533 miles west of Fort Kearney.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24th, }
WASHINGTON, Sept. 19th. }

Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald says Gen. McClellan and several of his staff, this afternoon, went to examine our earth works garrisoned by a portion of Franklin's command. While reviewing the enemy's position, Gen. McClellan discovered five or six hundred of the enemy's cavalry, two miles distant. He immediately ordered several rifled cannon pieces in position, and sent his compliments to the rebels in the shape of a twenty-pound shell, which exploded in their midst, producing the wildest confusion. The whole force was seen to scatter and fly: and there is no doubt a large number were killed. They did not return the fire. Gen. McClellan, after dispersing this force of rebels, directed his attention to a new battery recently thrown up by the enemy, a short distance south of Munson's Hill, known as Mason's Hill. He threw several shot and shell into their works, causing their hands to knock off. They were surprised by this sudden opening of our battery on others, as they disappeared and did not return the fire. Gen. McClellan returned to the city at nine o'clock last night.

A deserter from the rebel camp at Munson's Hill came into our camp to-day, and was immediately carried to Gen. McClellan. He states that Generals Beauregard and Johnson were both at Munson's Hill yesterday and made a thorough reconnoissance of our position. He states there are only about 1000 soldiers at Munson's Hill, and the main body of the troops are at Fairfax and Centerville. He says that Jeff. Davis was at these two points on Tuesday, and reviewed the troops in person. He saw Jeff. Davis at Munson's Hill yesterday and examined our troops with a glass. He says they were daily expecting an attack from our forces, also says he never heard the intention expressed by the rebels, of making an attack on our forces.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 21st.—Col. Bigler attacked 35 rebels while drilling, near Borbensville. The rebels fled at the first fire—their leader and 20 others were made prisoners, several men killed and wounded.

LOUISVILLE, 21st.—Robert Anderson has issued a proclamation to Kentuckians. He says: "Called by the Legislature of Kentucky, my native State, I hereby assume command of this Department. I come to enforce and not make laws, and, God willing, to protect your property and your lives." He begs Kentuckians to rally round the flag our fathers loved. "I call you to arms for self-defense and for the protection of all that is dear to freemen. Let us trust to God and do our duty, as did our fathers. (Signed.)

ROBERT ANDERSON,
Brig. Gen., U. S. A.

The proclamation of Gen. Buckner, C.S.A., is just arrived. He says the Legislature of Kentucky has been faithless to the will of the the people: they have endeavored to make our gallant State a fortress in which, under the guise of neutrality, the armed forces of the United States may securely prepare to subjugate alike the people of Kentucky and the Southern States. He says: "I return among the citizens of Kentucky at the head of a force the advance of which is composed entirely of Kentuckians. We do not come to molest any person, whatever may be his political opinions. I renew the pledges of commanders of other columns of Confederates, to retire from the soil of Kentucky on the same conditions which govern their movements. I further give you my assurance that the force under my command will be used as aid to the government of Kentucky, in carrying out the strict neutrality desired by its people, whenever they undertake to enforce it against the belligerents alike.

S. B. BUCKNER,
Brig.-Gen., C. S. A.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—It is stated that 10,000 troops can leave Indiana in 24 hours. Gen. Reynold, who was at Cheat Mountain, (the telegraph says) has driven the rebels from their position, killing nearly 100 of them. Col. Bidwell of the 10th Indiana Regiment, was surrounded twice, but repulsed the rebels with great gallantry, and small loss to us.

Government accepts the tender of the military services of the Count De Paris and the Duke De Chartres. They will probably enter Gen. McClellan's staff. There is no definite action in regard to Maj. Gen. Fremont.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—A messenger who has just arrived from Chain Bridge, reports all quiet at that point. A rebel deserter has just come in from Munson's Hill. He brings news that Beauregard had promised the North and South Carolina Regiments of his army, that they should be led to battle the first of October, or be permitted to go home.

Nothing new has transpired along the Potomac. Some days past, conversations have been held between our own and the rebel pickets, when it was discovered that the latter belonged to the 2d Richmond Cavalry, who were anxious to exchange Richmond papers for the leading Union Journals, but our pickets declined.

CAIRO, Sept. 21st.—A skirmish took place yesterday P. M., below Fort Holt between company I, of 10th regiment and a small party of rebels. Capt. McAllen of Co. I, was slightly wounded in the arm. The rebels were defeated and driven back towards the field.

The question has been raised of adding tobacco to the rations of our soldiers. Many Indian favors it.

A young man, native of Kentucky, has escaped from the rebel army at Bull Run. He says they have 185,000 men at Manassas, who are paid promptly and well clad and shod.

NEW TO-DAY.

CITY.

COMMON COUNCIL.—Council met on Friday night, Oct. 4, 1861, the President in the Chair.

A communication from the City Attorney, asking an appropriation to pay witness fees in the suit of J. P. O. Townsdale vs. the City of Portland, was read and referred to Committee on Finance.

A communication from the Acting Mayor was received, which read as follows:

To Portland and members of Common Council:

GENTLEMEN: In the absence of the Mayor the accompanying Ordinance was presented to me by your Clerk, Mr. Boyd, for your approval. On a careful examination of the City Charter, from which your powers of legislation are derived, I am unable to find any powers therein granted to make appropriations of the character contemplated in the Ordinance. I further object to cumbering the Book of Ordinances with acts having no continuing force, and the objects of which, if in accordance with the provisions of the Charter, can be attained by the passage of a resolution to that effect. The Ordinance is herewith returned for your further consideration.

O. BISLEY,
Acting Mayor.

The motion to pass the Ordinance over the Mayor's veto, was lost by 5 yeas to 4 nays.

The report of the City Council for the quarter ending Sept. 30th, was read, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The following bills were ordered paid: H. Pittock, $83 75; W. P. Abrams, $35 41; H. Field, $24 59; Wm. Grooms, $3 50; Kamm & Letz, $2 50; Remington & Clark, [illegible].

The report of the committee on streets and public grades, relative to the construction of a sewer in the south part of the city, was read and adopted.

An Ordinance for the suppression of Bawdy Houses and Houses of Ill-fame, was laid on the table.

A resolution to pay Portland Gas-light Co., was laid over under the rules.

A resolution instructing the committee on wharves and public property to inquire of the Portland Gas Co., at what cost they will furnish Gas in Council Room, was lost.

A resolution to have all City printing done by the City printer was adopted.

A resolution appropriating $213 75 to pay L. Davis for flag and flag staff was read and adopted.

A resolution requiring the clerk of the Common Council to furnish the City Printer with daily copies of the proceedings of the Board, was, on motion, adopted, laid on the table, and ordered.

WHY REMOVED.—The free Lectures delivered by Dr. C. H. De Wolfe on phrenology and temperance, were well attended, and the audience seemed to be well pleased with the entertainment.

The County Court, Judge Hamilton presiding, will commence its session this morning.

The cheese which received the first premium at the Oregon State Fair, is now on sale at the store of R. Pittock & Co., south of this office. We invite judges and those who like a very superior article to give it a call.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, already secured to a position which places it as well as a proprietor far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, shining light among the philosophical stars of his native home, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country, as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a diploma and the honorary degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary Army, for which extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has given his earliest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as a matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to use time in correspondence, please enclose $10 in their letters and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address L. J. CZAPKAY, M.D., San Francisco, Cal. A CONVENIENT LETTER SHEET.—Alfred Pell, of New York, is the inventor of a neat note and letter sheet, which is so folded as to furnish its own envelope, and it has the Government postage stamp on the outside. The advantages to the user are the conveniences afforded in dispatching a letter; the Government has the security that the same stamp will be used only once. It is estimated that a million of letters are sent to the dead-letter office from the loss of the posted stamps in their transmission through the Post Offices. Pell's patent avoids all accidents of this sort. The Government has purchased the patent, and allows the inventor a percentage on the sheets, which are put up in packages of one hundred and sold by the stationers.

"THE DEADEST MAN ALIVE."—Mr Holt, during his visit to Niagra Falls, being asked what he thought of Senator Breckinridge, replied that he could not answer the question better than by relating an anecdote, which he did as follows: "What do you think of Senator Breckinridge?" inquired a Kentuckian of Humphrey Marshall the "other day. "Why, sir," replied Marshall "he is the deadest man alive except myself.

A Scottish student, supposed to be deficient in judgment, was asked by a professor, in the course of his examination, how he would discover a fool? "By the questions he would ask," was the prompt and highly suggestive reply.

Legal Notice.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County. A. M. A. Blanchet, Complainant vs. Oswald Travaillot, Defendant. In Chancery.

TO OSWALD TRAVAILLOT, Defendant: You are hereby notified that A. M. A. Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint and commenced a suit against you, in which he claims that on the 26th day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable ten months after date, with interest at the rate of two per cent. per month, and at the same time made, acknowledged and delivered to him a certain mortgage deed upon lots numbered three and four in block number three, in South's claim or addition to the City of Portland, in the county aforesaid, as security for the payment of said note; and complainant prays for decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, viz: The sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid since the twentieth of September, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, and for a judgment against you for any balance which may remain unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale of said property to the payment of said debt and you are further notified that unless you appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1861, and then and there answer the said bill of complaint, the same will be taken as confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this Court this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861.

former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The facts contained therein supercilously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

CERTIFICATE.—The undersigned, desirous that those, who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the speedy recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of indulging the passion to youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon me in the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of several physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of little importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in spite of the strongest encomiums of their treatment, I found myself in a state of the most horrible terror, that instead of relief, my symptoms were alarming in their torture; and being told by them that my disease being principally confined to the throat, there would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength, and energy; and as a last resort, I entered with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which instantly relieved me of the dull pain and oppression in the head. Encouraged by this result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict observance of his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back, the extreme weakness of my limbs, the nervous irritation of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the fearful and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of energy, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have entirely disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having placed myself under the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—a life that a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate against the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that those under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

MARYSVILLE, June 1, 1860.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have taken the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall require more, as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely recovered my strength yet, but soon will, with the assistance of it. In just three weeks, you may recollect, my visit to your institute, with my constitution, as I then thought, entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to relieve me, so as to ease the pain in my back and head, and make me more nervous, so that I would not get excited and fret at everything. Now that you know what I expected, and the judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery, and the removal of those sores and ulcers from my throat, and the eruptions on my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the whole page of those emissions, which you said were the primary cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you what was the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except being in health, I got my strength. I feel as well as any man in California.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your fee, as I think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody can be benefited, you may put this letter in the papers. I remain, yours gratefully,

Call all diseases the first great cause.
Spring Blossom, neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Sufferers from the causes guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Scrofulous Nodous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Chancre, Diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Skin, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Painful Recent Eruptive Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case may be, a cure is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines I prescribe are entirely vegetable, containing no mercury, and free from mercury or any other mineral poison. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have resorted from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above horrible diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, who, ignorant as to promising to the afflicted, which many place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. After a radical cure is scarcely ever effected by those falling into the hands of incompetent practitioners, who still try to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution by drugging the system with mercury, which, with the disease, makes the sufferer into a rapid consumption. Marriage is a disease and the treatment not cause death, except in rare instances. One disease is entailed upon the child, and is born with feeble constitutions, and the offspring is tainted by a virus which betrays itself in the form of boils, eruptions and other affections of the skin, blotches, pimples, ulcerations upon the throat, lungs, enfeebling them and consigning them to an early grave.

Syphilis is another formidable enemy to health for which the system of Dr. L. J. Czapkay is a specific. It eradicates the disease entirely from the system—having the three or four years of suffering down to a few weeks of healthy action. It destroys the nervous system, expels the mercury, cures all cutaneous diseases, and all cases of Blindness, Deafness, Rheumatism, Scrofula, Ulcers, Boils, Tumors, Pimples on the face, sexual or other infirmities are cured by the justly celebrated physician, Dr. L. J. Czapkay. His method of curing diseases is unknown to others, and hence the great success.

All consultations, by letter or otherwise, free.
